SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

During the second and third weeks of January 1949, Albanian troops were transferred to the southern section of the Albanian-Yugoslav border. These troops are to be used to prevent the clandestine entrance into Albania of armed Albanian nationalist bands who have been readying themselves for resistance activities against the government of Enver Hoxha, at Peja, in the Kosovo region of Yugoslavia. Their activities in Yugoslavia have proceeded with the tacit consent of the Yugoslav authorities.
